

I urge you to continue banning the cross ownership of media in the same market. It is vital for citizens to have a variety of sources for information and education so they can make informed decisions for their welfare and that of our county.